1. When called to the judg-ment at last, And life shall be fin - ished and past, O
2. I know I am wor - thy to die, My sins I can ne - ver de - ny, And
3. The an - gels must cast me a - way, In trem - bling and hope - less dis - may; But what would my dread por - tion be, Were no one there plead - ing for me? at the great judg - ment I see One hope for a sin - ner like me. But Je - sus who died in my place Will win for me par - don - ing grace.

Refrain

I have an Ad - vo - cate plead - ing for me Who bore all my sins, and who died on the tree, And rit.

when I stand there, I will make but this plea: That Je - sus will an - swer for me.
