

Tell the Master All

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1920

W. T. Turner

♩=100

1. Make a full, com - plete con - fess - ion When on the Lord you
2. Not a - lone the great temp - ta - tions That may your heart ap -
3. For the One who guards cre - a - tion And notes the spar - row's
4. Tell to God your cares and sor - rows, And no - thing count too
5. Till at last you reach that ci - ty, Where tear - drops ne - ver

- call; Do not car - ry half the bur - den, But tell the Mas - ter all.
- pall, But the lit - tle cares and trou - bles, Just tell the Mas - ter all.
fall, Will give heed to your pe - ti - tion, Just tell the Mas - ter all.
small, For His ear is ev - er o - pen, Just tell the Mas - ter all.
fall, When you pray to Him in sec - ret, Just tell the Mas - ter all.

Refrain

All, all, what - ev - er your bur - dens may be, Whe - ther great or small; Make to Him a full con - fess - ion, Just tell the Mas - ter all.

