

The Joyful Message

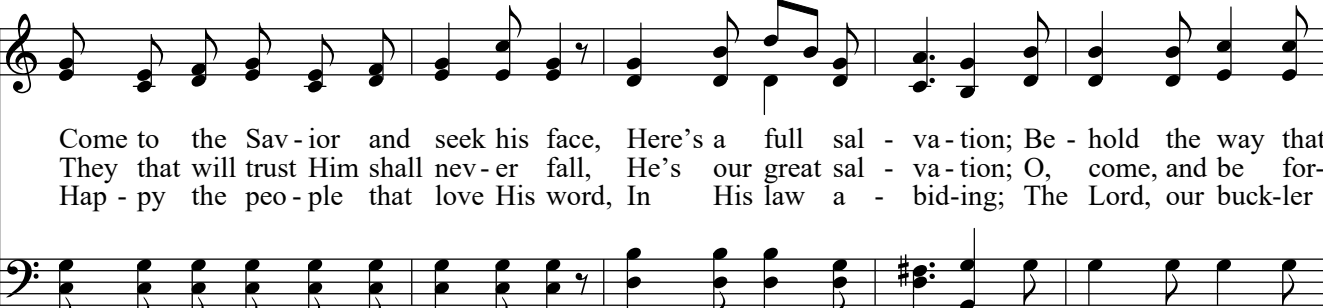

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1871

Thomas Jefferson Cook (1826–1872)

♩=97

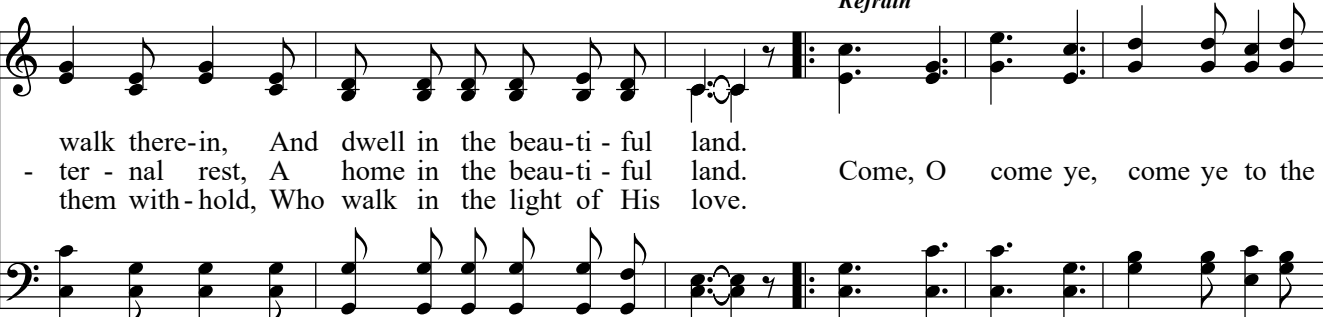

1. Joy - ful the mes - sage of Gos - pel grace, Call - ing ev - ery na - tion;
2. God is the re - fuge and strength of all, He a sure foun - da - tion;
3. Hap - py the peo - ple that know the Lord, In His truth con - fid - ing;

Come to the Sav - ior and seek his face, Here's a full sal - va - tion; Be - hold the way that They that will trust Him shall nev - er fall, He's our great sal - va - tion; O, come, and be for - Hap - py the peo - ple that love His word, In His law a - bid - ing; The Lord, our buck - ler leads from sin, Bright - ly, bright - ly shin - ing, And He that be - liev - eth shall

- ev - er blest, Seek, and ye shall find Him; There's rest for the wea - ry, e - and our shield, Giv - eth grace and glo - ry, And He will no good thing from walk there - in, And dwell in the beau - ti - ful land.

Refrain

- ter - nal rest, A home in the beau - ti - ful land. Come, O come ye, come ye to the them with - hold, Who walk in the light of His love.

wa - ters! Ho! ev - ery one that thirst - eth, O come with - out mon - ey and buy!