

The Cross of Calvary (Coleman)

Emmet Griffin Coleman, 1917

Howard Everett Smith

♩=90

1. Up - on the rug - ged mount - ain side, Our Sav - ior trudged a - long; Sur -
2. The sun re - fused to shine up - on That scene on Cal - va - ry; Where
3. This ten - der, lov - ing Sav - ior, still In - vit - ing us to come, Is

- round - ed by the an - gry mob, And crowd - ed by the throng; But Je - sus died in ag - o - ny To set the sin - ner free; Our call - ing from His throne ab - ove, "Oh, wan - d'ring child, come home"; Be - pa - tient - ly He bore the cross To ran - som you and me; He Sav - ior, brok - en heart - ed, died That we might look and live, And

- lieve on Him, He paid the price On rug - ged Cal - va - ry; He went to pay the price up - on The cross of Cal - va - ry. in His dy - ing breath He cried, "Oh, Fa - ther, please for - give." Up - on the cross of bore the cross, He gave His life To ran - som you and me.

Cal - va - ry He died, And Heav - en's pear - ly gates were op - ened wide He gave His life to ran - som you and me— He paid the price up - on the lone - ly cross of Cal - va - ry.