

The Valley of Decision

JOEL 3:2,14
Daniel S. Warner, pub. 1888

Barney E. Warren, pub. 1888

1. All ye peo - ple, come down to the judg - ment be - gun, The stan - dard up - lift - ed is
2. Now the na - tions are sum - moned to ap - pear be - fore God, To gath - er a rem - nant made
3. Lo, what mul - ti - tudes en - ter this sweet val - ley of choice, All shout - ing their tri - umph with
4. All is tran - quil and ho - ly in the val - ley of love, Its streams are sal - va - tion, free - ly shin - ing as the sun; Who is a - ble to stand, Heav - en's truth to en - dure?

pure in Je - sus' blood; From the val - ley of judg - ment, where all truth is the test, loud ex - ult - ing voice; From all sor - row and sigh - ing He hath giv - en re - lease, flow - ing from a - bove; Eve - ry foe is ex - pired, and our weak - ness made strong,

Refrain

Pass un - der the blood and be per - fect - ly pure.
We en - ter de - ci - sion's sweet val - ley of rest. We have come to the deep Whose com - ing is near in the val - ley of peace. In this val - ley of de - ci - sion, reach - ing
And th' vale of de - ci - sion is vo - cal with song.

rit.

vale of rest: All calm and pure, our soul is ful - ly blest.
to the gates of Heav - en, All are pure and tran - quil in our Sa - vior's sweet un - bro - ken rest (ful - ly blest).