

The Evening Is Glorious!

ZECARIAH 14:7; 1 JOHN 2:8; ISAIAH 11:10
H. D. S.

Harlan D. Sorrell, ca. 1986

1. The eve - ning is glo - rious, oh, hear the glad song Of saints all vic - to - rious o'er
2. Though we have been scat - tered by sects and by creeds, Now home to Mount Zi - on our
3. The songs of the cap - tives who have re - turned home— O'er Ba - bel's dark moun - tains no
4. The glo - ry of heav - en now streams from a - bove On God's ho - ly rem - nant made
5. The eve - ning is glo - rious, break forth in - to song, Let me - lo - dy car - ry the sin and the wrong! They've ris - en in tri - umph to reign in this life, A - good Shep - herd leads; The light was not clear in the dark, cloud - y day, But lon - ger to roam— Are tell - ing of free - dom in Zi - on's fair height; Oh, per - fect in love; They're free in the Spir - it, by Him they are led, And mes - sage a - long Of per - fect sal - va - tion in Je - sus a - lone, Who bove sect con - fu - sion, all dark - ness and strife.

Refrain
pure eve - ning light now re - veals the true way. glo - ry to Je - sus, the eve - ning is light! The eve - ning is glo - rious, hal - le - give their al - le - giance to Je - sus, their Head. is our sal - va - tion and chief Cor - ner Stone.

lu - jah to God! We're sanc - ti - fied whol - ly through faith in the blood; The true light now shin - eth, the dark - ness is past; Our sor - row and sigh - ing is end - ed at last.