

The Sweetest Song

REVELATION 15:3
Lydia S. Leech

Adam Geibel

1. There is a song I nev - er tire of sing - ing, It is a song which down the ag - es
2. The sweet - est song e'er sung by men or an - gels, All na - tions join and swell the glad re -
3. Oh, her - ald wide the song of full re - demp - tion, Till all the world shall fall at His dear rings; Of love di - vine, so pure and strong and change - less, Naught in this frain; Of Him who gave His life a will - ing of - f'ring, Who died for feet; And own Him King whose love is e'er un - chang - ing, While o'er and f Refrain world such peace and joy can bring. O song sub - lime of love di - vine, Ring out thy all, will soon in glo - ry reign. sub - lime, di - vine, o'er the sto - ry we re - peat.

sto - ry to all the lis - t'ning world; Soon may it be o'er land and the lis - t'ning world; it be sea, To eve - ry na - tion love's ban - ner be un - furled.

and sea,