

How Good It Is to Thank the LORD

1 How good it is to thank the LORD to praise your 2 O LORD my song with joy ex - pands be - fore the 3 Though as the grass the wick - ed grow, those e - vil -
 4 O LORD you have ex - alt - ed me with roy - al 5 The right - eous all will flour - ish well and in the name with tune - ful chord, to show your love with won - ders of your hands. How great the works that do - ers do not know the end - less ru - in strength and dig - ni - ty. With your a - noint - ing house of God will dwell. They will be plant - ed morn - ing light and tell your faith - ful - ness each you have wrought; how deep, O LORD your ev - ery they will see. But God will reign e - ter - nal I am blest; your grace and fa - vor on me like a tree, will still in old age fruit - ful

Text: Psalm 92; vers. Psalter, 1912, alt.
 Tune: William Matthews, 1759-1830

88 88 88
 MADRID
www.hymnary.org/text/how_good_it_is_to_thank_the_lord_to_prai night. Yes, it is good your praise to sing thought! You make me glad; I sing your praise ly. All foes will fall be - fore his might;

 rest. My eyes have seen the wick - ed die;
 be. The LORD our God is up - right, just;

and all our sweet - est mu - sic bring.
 for all your won - drous works and ways.
 the wick - ed shall be put to flight.
 my ears have heard their hope - less cry.
 he is my Rock; in him I trust.